ORDER NUNC PRO TUNC

This Order Nunc Pro Tunc will correct the number "54.5" to read "38" in the first sentence of the last paragraph on page 2 of the Appeals Board's October 15, 1997 Order. That sentence will read as follows:

Giving due weight to the restrictions imposed by Dr. Prostic and Dr. Brown and the uncontroverted opinions of claimant's vocational expert, Mr. Molski, as to claimant's post-accident ability to earn a comparable wage in the open labor market and claimant's labor market loss, we agree with the Administrative Law Judge and find the claimant to have sustained a 38 percent work disability.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
